Indian Culture of London Ontario with coloration of South Asian Association of London & Surrounding & Indo-Can Punjabi Cultural Association of London & Surrounding has brought the joyous, ancient Dharmic festival of Holi to Port Stanley Main Beach, ON, First time in a history of Canada. With restrictions being lifted, we are excited to a return to celebrating Colours On The Beach.

Holi, one of the most popular festivals, is celebrated throughout the world, by Hindus, Sikhs, Jains and other Dharmic traditions originating in India & Surrounding Countries.

Join in for 5 hours of a “Riot of Colours“, synchronized Colour throws, Joy, Music and Dance with over 1500 Kgs of colours, celebrating Colours On The Beach on July 9th, 2022 Saturday @ Port Stanley main beach, ON.

This is a child-friendly event, everyone is welcome and ADMISSION is FREE.

OUTSIDE COLOURS ARE STRICTLY NOT ALLOWED

for security, safety, and quality control reasons and will be strictly enforced by security personnel and volunteers.

Colour Information: Organic Corn Starch Colours will be available at nominal cost and sold at the online, using Debit or Credit card. You may reserve your colours online, to avoid waiting in lines and spending more time playing.

The celebrations will comprise of –

- “Riot of Colours”
- High Energy Drummers (Dhol)
- Bollywood dances & other Live performances
- Synchronized Colour Throws & Play with Colours
- Traditional Ganesh Puja to Kickstart celebrations.
- Delicious North & South Indian Cuisine & Snacks

Holi symbolizes onset of spring, blooming of colours in nature and signifies unity in diversity in the universe. The festival is marked by celebrations that involve boisterous fun, music, dancing, food and playing with colours. Holi signifies “unity in diversity” and oneness, that beneath the layers of different colours splashed across our faces, we are all the same and in sync with nature. So come out, get coloured and have fun!
